ENGL 4504 Modern Poetry

An "appropriate section" of a rotating topics course is one in which the course syllabus substantially comprises literature written before 1800. Example topics might include "Literatures of Colonial America," "Witchcraft in Renaissance England," or "The Eighteenth-Century Novel." To determine whether a rotating topics course meets the requirement for "Literature Written Before 1800," consult the English Department advisor or the faculty member teaching the course.

Satisfactory Progress Toward the B.A. in English, Major in English: Literature Option

Satisfactory progress toward the B.A. in English, Major in English: Literature Option, requires that upon having attempted 72 credits (including transfer, advanced placement, advanced standing, credit by examination, and course withdrawal), students must have passed 12 of the required credits in the English Core (Section I) and have attained a GPA of 2.0 or better both within the major and overall.
