¹ Check the Undergraduate Course Catalog or the Timetable of classes for the most up to date course restrictions and pre-requisites.

² Indicates the course has a pre-requisite. Please consult the University Catalog and/or check with your advisor.

³ IS 4964 Field Study is only offered as Pass/Fail and can be used toward fulfillment of a major elective from the corresponding list.

⁴ The content of the Independent Study or Special Study, as well as the topic of Undergraduate Research should be relevant to the International Relations major. Please ask the International Studies advisor in advance whether the proposed Independent Study or Special Study or Undergraduate Research, topic qualifies.

Satisfactory Progress: To proceed satisfactorily toward a degree, a student must complete IS 1004 Nations and Nationalities, IS 1034 Introduction to International Studies and Political Science, IS 2004 Research and Writing in International Studies, IS 2054 Introduction to World Politics, IS 2064 The Global Economy and World Politics, IS 2084 The Evolution of World Order, and Foreign language 2105 & 2106 by the end of the semester in which 60 hours have been attempted; must maintain an overall GPA of at least 2.0 and must maintain an in-major GPA of 2.0.

Graduation Requirements

Hours Requirement: A total of 120 hours is required to graduate with an International Studies degree of which there are fifty-seven (57) required hours for the International Relations major.

In-major GPA: All of the courses in the core and major requirements and major electives are included in the in-major GPA calculation. A GPA of 2.0 or above both overall and in-major GPA is required for graduation.

Dual Use of Courses: No course can double count within or between International Studies Program-related majors or minors with the exception of the Core Degree Requirements and IS 1004 Nations and Nationalities, IS 2004 Research and Writing in International Studies, IS 2054 Introduction to World Politics and IS 2064 The Global Economy and World Politics. In accordance with the State Council guidelines, courses used to fulfill the SCHEV approved degree core may not also be used to meet Pathways General Education or major requirements.

Intra-departmental majoring and minoring: Due to overlapping of courses, students pursuing one or more majors associated with the International Studies Program cannot major or minor in Political Science.

Intra-IS Program majoring and minoring: Students may pursue more than one major or minor associated with the International Studies Program. In this case, the policy pertaining to the "Dual Use of Courses" will apply.

Prerequisites: Some courses listed have prerequisites; please consult the University Catalog and/or check with your advisor.

Pathways to General Education: More details and course listings can be found at the following link: <https://www.pathways.prov.vt.edu>.

Foreign Language Requirements

University and Admissions Foreign Language Requirement

This is a requirement that is separate from the International Studies requirement. Completion of this requirement will not fulfill your International Studies Language Requirement.

- Students who completed three years of a single foreign, classical, or sign language in high school have completed the requirement.
- Students who did not complete three years of a single foreign, classical, or sign language in high school may complete the requirement as follows:
 - Complete two years of a single foreign, classical, or sign language in high school plus 1106 or the equivalent in college (these three hours of 1106 do count toward the 120 required for graduation and calculates into the GPA) or

- Complete an 1105-1106 foreign language (e.g. FR, GR, SPAN) grouping or the equivalent in college (these six hours do NOT count toward the 120 required for graduation).
